

United Way of the Greater Dayton Area at work in your community...

After fleeing a violent home, Mom and her children find themselves being stalked by their abuser. Fearing for their safety, Mom calls for help.

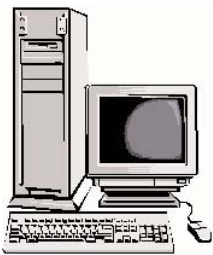

Domestic violence advocates help the family create a safety plan, attend court hearings with Mom, enroll the children in an art therapy program and help the family with groceries and basic needs.

Mom receives job skill training so she can find a job and take care of her children.

Legal assistance is provided to help file a protection order against the abuser.

The Dayton Urban League

Children enrolled in afterschool program so Mom can find a job to support them.

Mom finds a great new job and is able to provide a safe and stable home for her children.
